

Auralite

Dental light

Technology that's clear to see

- The Auralite provides a well-defined light-patch with shadow-reduction
- Easy to clean and maintain
- All Auralite models have an integral power supply

The DARAY Auralite is a cost-effective uncomplicated dental light with two intensity settings and available as wall, ceiling, mobile and unit mounted.

The DARAY Auralite dental light features an ingeniously designed parallel-action arm, replicating human muscular movement, available with either a wall, ceiling or unit mount configuration.
